BEACHWOOD BEAMS SHOWN IN CARAMEL

elevate the look AND enhance the feel

Imagine the transformational possibilities of hyperrealistic architectural decor
for your design visions.

WHY FAUX

With a large breadth of high-quality replications and versatile applications, faux architectural decor is an attainable alternative that's easy to install and adds elegant, custom touches to any space.

WHY BARRON DESIGNS

With nearly half a century of experience in manufactured materials, we know achieving your design vision takes superior support, and we pride ourselves on providing one-on-one service tailored to your specific needs. We craft our products by hand in the U.S. with in-house artisans to create authentic-looking wood, brick and stone materials, delivering a level of artistry unmatched in the industry.

With meticulous attention to detail and quality, our team is dedicated to elevating the use of decor, texture and style — all with ease of installation. We help build portfolios for visionary partners and empower our customers to dream of the transformational possibilities. For us, a space is a blank canvas, where every idea is an attainable reality.

INTRO panels

Great faux achieves a cost-effective trifecta of superior replication, beauty with minimal maintenance and unbridled creative possibilities. Barron Designs offers more textures and hues for interior and exterior applications. Plus, our panels offer better coverage at a competitive cost per square foot.

Quality is in the details, including superior density and minimized joints and seams. Barron Designs takes great care to ensure replicas maintain the look and feel found in authentic building materials. We offer a wide assortment of styles, colors and textures, as well as Class A fire-rated polyurethane. Our intentional design process, advanced manufacturing technology and use of high-quality materials make us unique in the industry.
